Introduction

Inspired by the traditional work stools, Tod is available in two different heights. Made of solid wood, it is proposed not only in natural oak or thermocooked wood, but also in a variety of colours with a glossy finish that make it a transversal complement with great flexibility of use in different contexts.

Ispirato ai tradizionali sgabelli da lavoro o da disegno, Tod è disponibile in due altezze diverse. Realizzato in legno massello, è proposto oltre che nelle essenze di rovere naturale o termocotto, anche in una varietà di colori con finitura lucida che lo rendono, in contesti diversi e per i possibili abbinamenti, un complemento trasversale e dalla grande flessibilità d'uso.

“Simple and timeless, Tod is inspired by traditional three-legged work or drawing stools: it is a contemporary piece, yet one that is deeply rooted in our collective memory as it evokes the simple charm of wooden stools.”

Aldo Parisotto (Monselice, 1962) graduated from IUAV Venice under James Stirling, and taught interior design in Trieste from 2001 to 2003. Massimo Formenton (Padova, 1964) also graduated from IUAV in 1989. Together they founded Parisotto+Formenton studio in Padova in 1990, with a Milan base added in 2004. Their work spans architecture (museums, commercial spaces and residential buildings, including the recent restoration of Milan's historical Ricordi palace) and 360° retail design for major fashion and luxury brands (Salvatore Ferragamo, Eleventy, Testoni, Vic Matié, among others). They are also behind the Nespresso boutique concepts worldwide, alongside significant collaborations in lighting and furniture design.
