Introduction

Much more than a table: a living space that becomes a Kitchen and a place of conviviality, becoming the beating heart of home and work life. The place of making, thinking, sharing and eating. The evolution of the Wing table created for a technological and high-performance Kitchen that releases the heart of domestic space par excellence: a Kitchen without boundaries.

Molto più di un tavolo: uno spazio da vivere che si fa cucina e luogo di convivialità, diventando il cuore pulsante della vita domestica e lavorativa. Il luogo del fare, del pensare, del condividere e del mangiare. L'evoluzione del tavolo Wing che nasce per una cucina tecnologica e performante e che libera il cuore dello spazio domestico per antonomasia: una cucina senza confini.

Wing Kitchen

“The iconic design of the Wing table collection retains its distinctive character – characterised by its trestle-style frame, lightweight top and central groove – whilst being enhanced with new functionalities: this island is, in fact, designed to be the vibrant heart of the space where it is placed, a catalyst for social interaction and convivial activities, within the context of today’s changing workplace landscape, which is becoming increasingly eclectic and welcoming.”

Aldo Parisotto (Monselice, 1962) graduated from IUAV Venice under James Stirling, and taught interior design in Trieste from 2001 to 2003. Massimo Formenton (Padova, 1964) also graduated from IUAV in 1989. Together they founded Parisotto+Formenton studio in Padova in 1990, with a Milan base added in 2004. Their work spans architecture (museums, commercial spaces and residential buildings, including the recent restoration of Milan’s historical Ricordi palace) and 360° retail design for major fashion and luxury brands (Salvatore Ferragamo, Eleventy, Testoni, Vic Matié, among others). They are also behind the Nespresso boutique concepts worldwide, alongside significant collaborations in lighting and furniture design.
